It is hoped the genealogical data published in this book will assist you in locating and learning some facts about your ancestors, who were at one time in Greene County, Alabama.

A study of the Land Patents, page 99 and the 1830 Census Schedule, page 126 will show you the early settlers of this county. The Land Patents were compiled from the Tract Book in the Courthouse, Eutaw, Alabama. The 1830 Census Schedule was compiled from micro-film from the National Archives, Washington, D.C.

Many long hours have been spent collecting the Tombstone inscriptions included in this book. All possible care has been given to record the names and data correctly. However, anyone who has tried to copy data from a tombstone over a hundred years old, knows how hard it is to read some of them.

We trust the mistakes in this book are few and of minor importance.

EARLY TOWNS

Greene County was established by the first Legislature of the State of Alabama, held in 1818 in Huntsville. It was named for the famous Revolutionary Soldier, General Nathaniel Greene. The county was formed from parts of Marengo and Tuscaloosa counties. In 1820 additional land was granted Greene County from Pickens and Perry Counties. In 1867 part of Greene County was used to form Hale County. Many of the early records of the present Hale County are still in Greene County Courthouse.

The following are the early towns of importnace in the present Greene County:

Erie, the first county seat of Greene County, was not centrally located and did not have a good supply of water, that was so important in those days. In 1838, by a vote of the county, the county seat was moved to about a mile southwest of Mesapotamia. The new town was named Eutaw and still serves as the county seat of Greene County.

Clinton is located eigth miles northwest of Eutaw. It was one of the first towns settled on the west side of the Warrior River.

Havana was the second place to be settled in the county.

Forkland was located as its name indicates in the "Fork". The name given to a section of the county south of Eutaw and between the Tombigbee and Warrior Rivers.

Pleasant Ridge is located on the high pleasànt table land east of the mouth of the Sipsey River.

Springfield was one of the first towns settled and for many years was the most prominent place in the county west of the Warrior River. The removal of the county seat from Erie, that was located three miles south of Springfield, wrencked the prosperity of Springfield.

Among other villiages of minor importance in the early days were: Mt. Hebron, Knoxville and Boligee.

AN OLD BUSINESS ESTABLISHMENT

Among the older business establishments of Green County is the Colson Lumber Company, one of Alabama's largest lumber companies. It was founded by an outstanding lumberman, Robert Gordon Colson, who's great grandfather was an early settler of this area. Mr. Colson's fine sons are following in his footsteps. They are active in the company and each holds an interest in it.

At an early age Mr. Colson checked lumber for his uncle, P.M. Sanders. In 1914 he bought a small mill at Aliceville, with a partner. Later Mr. Colson bought out his partner and went into business with another of his mother's brothers, E.V. Sanders. They set up an upright mill near Aliceville with a capacity of 10 to 12 thousand feet a day.

In 1916 the Colson - Sanders mill was moved to Eutaw where it remained until 1919 when the operations were returned to Aliceville. They remained there until 1925 when they obtained the present site occupied by the company. Mr. Colson bought his uncle's interest in 1928 and remained the sole owner until he began to take his sons into the company.

In addition to his lumber business, Mr. Colson has two gins and a banded cotton warehouse. In 1928 he brought to Greene County the first Continental gin powered by an electric motor.

Among the early settlers of Greene County was Irvin Colson (See 1830 Census), born in North Carolina, married Nancy Crockrell. Their son, John Thomas Cilson married Rachael McHaley Sherrod, who were the parents of Robert Foster Colson. Robert Foster Colson married Ida Virginia Sanders and they were the parents of Robert Gordon Colson, subject of the article.

In 1914 Robert Gordon Colson married Gertie Lou Evans, daughter of Barter Ragsdale and Mary Alice (Russell) Evans, in Eutaw, Alabama. Their children are as follows:

1. Robert Sebron Colson married Romala Delphine Giers of Valhermosa Springs, Morgan County, Alabama. Issue:

- 1a - Roberta Delphine Colson
- 1b - Robert Sebron Colson, Jr.
- 1c - John Norman Colson (deceased aged 2 1/2 yrs.)
- 1d - Michael Giers Colson
- 1e - Hanson Sanders Colson
- 1f - Jeanna Marie Colson

2. Cecil Wilson Colson married Sally Anita Rushing of Coatapa, Sumter County, Alabama. Issue:

- 2a - Cecil Wilson Colson, Jr.
- 2b - Susan Ann Colson

3. Margaret Alice Colson married James Snedecor Maxwell of Tuscaloosa, Tuscaloosa County, Alabama. Issue:
 - 3a - James Snedecor Maxwell, Jr.
 - 3b - Henry Palmer Maxwell
 - 3c - Margaret Eleanor Maxwell
4. Gertie Eleanor Colson married Claude Robert Earle Walker of Anniston, Calhoun County, Alabama. Issue:
 - 4a - James Colson Walker
 - 4b - Infant (died at birth)
 - 4c - Claude Robert Walker
5. Warren Gordon Colson married Deane Johnston of Eutaw, Greene County, Alabama. Issue:
 - 5a - Warren Gordon Colson, Jr.
 - 5b - Frederick Johnston Colson
6. Susie Kathleen Colson (twin of Harold Eugene Colson) married Offa Swann Nickols of Marion, Perry County, Alabama. Issue:
 - 6a - Louisa Evans Nickols
 - 6b - David Offa Nickols
7. Harold Eugene Colson (twin of Susie Kathleen Colson) married Mary Morrison Young of Burkville, Lowndes County, Alabama. No Issue:
8. Gerald Evans Colson married Mildred McRee Smith of Gainesville, Sumter County, Alabama. Issue:
 - 8a - LaCreta Lou Colson
 - 8b - Gerald Evans Colson, Jr.

The Colson family, as many of our other pioneer families, have contributed a great service, to the present generation and the future generations, for their part in the founding of Greene County and the State of Alabama. We should always remember the courage these pioneers had to face the untold hardships and dangers in the wilderness that was Alabama in the early 1800s. To them go our undying appreciation.

A NEW BUSINESS ESTABLISHMENT

One of the newer business establishments to come to Greene County is owned by Mr. Cecil Brown. In 1951 Mr. Brown moved from Pickens County to Eutaw, where he bought the Eutaw Gulf Service Station.

Cecil and Sara A. Brown are the parents of two children:

Cecil Brown, Jr.
Nancy Brown

Mr. Brown takes a personal interest in each car that comes into his service station. For better service, the next time you are in Eutaw, Alabama, be sure and look for the following sign:
